A REPORT

The Vighraha prathishta anniversary celebrations of Devi Sree Ramambika recorded a grand success. Udayasthamana Sree Lalitha Sahasranama yajna is a very potent form of worship to invoke Devi Sree Lalithambika, the Supreme power. Sree Lalitha Sahasranama is a part of 'Sreevidya' imparted to Agasthya Maharshi by Lord Hayagreeva. Agasthya Maharshi popularized 'Sreevidya' into the land of Bharath.

Sree Maha Ganapathy Homa performed on any auspicious undertaking to ward off any impediments. Sree Maha Ganapathy is inseparable from Divine Mother and an aspect of Divine Mother. On the auspicious prathishta day of Devi Sree Ramambika the whole atmosphere was vibrant with divine radiations.

Sree Chandika Homa is a very potent form of yajna performed to vanquish the evil forces and to confer success and fearlessness to the devotees. For the children of Divine Mother Sree Tara Devi Herself is Sree Devi Chandika (as declared by Divine Mother Sree Rama Devi). Sree Chandika Devi is propitiated through sapta-shathi, 700 mantras.

The ceremonial procession of Devi Sree Ramambika is very special and very beneficial to bhaktas. For, the Deity comes very close to the devotees near the doors of their homes. The devotees can talk to the Deity, offer their love, devotion and worship. The Deity in turn answers their prayers and supplications.

Kolu Festival is a special worship to the guardian deities of the Shaktinagar campus. Their levels of functioning and duties are enjoined upon them by Divine Mother. All the participants experienced joy, happiness and peace due to subtle presence and special Grace of Divine Mother. You might have already seen the photos of these celebrations in our website.

Divine Mother says, 'God is the Supreme value (paramartha). To realize Him is not easy. But it is easy for votaries of truth, who abide in dharma, who have staunch faith, whose yearning for God is intense. When you adhere to Dharma at all costs, God comes to you and reveals Himself to you.'
