DIVINE MOTHER SREE RAMĀ DEVI

DIVINE MOTHER SREE TARA DEVI

Maha Samadhi day is the most auspicious and most memorable day. For, Divine Mother chose to remain silently seated eternally in Divine Yoga just below the Shrine of Devi Sree Ramambika, radiating love, blessings and grace to all creation.

For children of Divine Mother, She is all Chaithanya in any plane of Consciousness. Her Saguna Form is eternal. Her Body is all Divine energy effulgent with pure satwa. The meditation on Mother's Form leads the mind to stillness, and supernal silence. She promised that She will be eternally present in Shaktinagar radiating Grace and Blessings as visible Deity and invisible guide in the hearts of the devotees. During Her visible splendour, She was fully conscious of Her Godhood Consciousness.

THE NAVARATHRI MAHOTSAVA 2017 – A REPORT.

The Glory of Divine Mother is infinite and endless. Sree Devi is described in Vedas, puranas and in different systems of yoga. She is the originator of countless universes as Lord Sree Hayagreeva explains in Sree Vidya (the glory of Devi and Her Names) to Maharshi Agasthya. Sree Agasthya only popularized Sree Vidya in the world. Sree Vidya explains a segment of glories of Divine Mother. Even Vedas laps into silence while describing the glories of Divine Mother.

In Navarathri Mahotsava only a few aspects are highlighted, especially three aspects as Maha Kali, Maha Lakshmy and Maha Saraswathy. The Supreme Shakti annihilates the wicked and gives succor to devotees and raises dharma to a higher level.

In Shaktinagar, we celebrated the Navarathri Mahotsava for ten days. Devi Sree Ramambika was radiating love, Blessings and Grace to all. With Different types of tasteful decorations in the entire prayer hall, each day was unique. Shrines were shining with added glow, grace and glory with artistic and hearty alankaras. Her vibrant Form was different, depicting the three aspects. It was a sight for gods to see. Children of Mother Divine were so much inspired basking in the Theertha of Divine Vibrations.

The Mahotsava started with invocatory prayer in Matrunilayam. The Music programmes both Carnatic and Hindusthani were fine and all have enjoyed. The talk on 'Supramacy of Sree Durga Sapta sathi' by Dr. Vageeswari Shiva Rama was very impressive. Being a scholar of Sanskrit, he could quote copious illustration from Vedas, Puranas etc. It was educative also. The devotional songs by Smt. Theertha of Talassery were very good. With sweet and melodious music she lifted the audience to a higher musical world giving joy, happiness to all.

The Harikatha on 'Shabari' by Kum. Shraddha Gurudas was very impressive. Even though she was very young she performed as a seasoned Haridas which is exceptional. Shabari's story was very dear to Divine Mother. Divine Mother praised Shabari for her unwavering Gurubhakthi till end was a great lesson for all sadhakas. Harikatha on 'Daana Shoora Karna' was very excellent. Dr. Gurudas being a well known Haridas with a vast experience over decades and a seasoned Keerthankar, treated the theme with dexterity and made the audience happy and joyous.

Udayasthamana Sree Lalitha Shasranama Yajna is a very potent form of invoking Devi Sree Lalithambika's Grace. Sree Lalitha Sahasranama, though it is in nama form, but containing 1008 manthras to propitiate Divine Mother of the universe. It describes the glory of Divine Mother. Many devotees chant Sahasranama to avoid adverse circumstances in life.

The talk on 'Manifestation of Supreme Shakthi' by Pandit Sri. K.V. Nandakumar of Bengaluru was good. The topic is infinite in dimension. However, Sri. Nandakumar made it interesting to the audience by quoting puranas and episodes from various sources. Everyone has enjoyed it. The songs, slokas and bhajans sung on different days were good and were very much liked by the audience.

The 'cultural programme (devotional)' by the children's wing of Rama Sakti Mission was top of all the programmes. We find here the talk, singing, dancing, group bhajans, mono acting etc. All attracted the audience very well. All were all praise and appreciated very well. Some children exhibited high capacity and capability beyond their age illustrating a great future for younger generation building a new Bharath.

Divine Mother liked young children because they are the torch bearers of our Sanathana Dharma. If great ideals are inculcated in the children, the new generation becomes strong to glorify Bharath Matha. The credit goes to Kum. Shankari, who is the leader and guide of the children.

There was Yakshagana on the theme 'Mahishasura Mardini' by the children of Yakshagana Mandali, Karekadavu, Mulky. The theme was very appropriate to the occasion. All children did wonderfully well and audience applauded them. In this Histrionic art which is a tough art, to act like professionals is a great wonder.

The children have won the hearts of the people. This is one of the mediums of propagating Sanathana Dharma. The Navarathri Mahotsava ended with a golden note 'Grand and glorious success'.

Divine Mother Says, "Guru is not an individual person. He is the Supreme Himself, the infinite Power. This awareness should dawn in the heart of the disciple. He who looks upon the Guru as a human being cannot achieve spiritual redemption".

Let us participate in the auspicious Maha Samadhbi day in spirit of Sadhana, tapas divine friendship to imbibe the Divine radiations emanating from the Shrine of Devi Sree Ramambika. We pray for universal peace and well being of all Humanity.

Sree Durga Namaskara pooja performed on Mahasamadhi Day bestows joy, happiness and bliss. All are welcome to participate in this Yajna and become recipients of Divine Mother's Grace and Blessings.

With affectionate regards,
Yours in the Cause of Mission,

(A.M. DEVAIAH)
