THE GLEANINGS FROM LETTERS OF MOTHER

Awake. You are of the Eternal, the manifestations of God, the embodiments of Divine Shakti, born to glorify the power of the soul and the mercy of the Supreme. Live in the consciousness of this divine mission. Every one of you has a mission in life. Dedicate yourselves and you will know what your mission is. It is not that one knows the mission and then only begins to work. First dedicate yourselves to the Divine and then work without selfishness, and by and by, you will know the mission in life.

Unfathomable is the love that dwells in the Mother's universal heart. The all-consuming love for the whole universe allows not Mother even the awareness of physical illness. No doubt, the general condition of health is one of steady improvement. There is every convenience for perfect solitude. The bungalow in which Mother resides has all comforts and is ideally situated on the hills of Kadri with sylvan surroundings.

If you visit this place, as you have indicated in your letter you will, even the scenery will elevate your mind to the peak of contemplation, leave alone darshan of Mother. The infinite vast of sky, the refreshing breez, the serene quietude, the undisturbed silence all round-this nature's bounty, only a poet can describe in adequate expressions. In the evenings, children take Mother out for a drive for healthy fresh air. Tara and Ramachandra and brothers are looking after Mother with exemplary devotion and attention. Therefore you need not have the least worry about Mother's health.
