DIVINE MOTHER SAYS

NO: 8

SD NO: 1 / PG 44

WORSHIP PEACE

Your spiritual piety should on no account make you irresponsible in the discharge of your domestic duties. Mother's first principle is, perfection in conduct, in your limited circle of home-life. Spirituality comes afterwards. You must be skillful in relating expenditure to the income, if you want to render real service to your husband. Lack of balance in economy leaves the man in a state of constant worry.

When your husband comes home with a load of worry in his mind, how can you preserve your peace and contentment, developed through your spiritual disciplines? Your presence, your talk and your conduct should free him from all worries. Then only the home becomes a sweet, peaceful retreat, where he can compose his troubled mind, rejuvenate his tired frame and fill his inner soul with delight and happiness. It is the wife's inefficiency in home administration, and lack of wisdom in conduct, that makes man even to curse marriage and married life.

So my child, your peace, the peace of your husband and the peace of the whole society around you, are in your own hands. If you establish yourselves in the peace of your inner self, everything will go sweet, smooth and harmonious around you. If you are devoted to Divine Mother, then worship peace, for the Mother's nature is peace. Through harmonization of your relationship, through sweetness of your conduct, through efficient discharge of your work and through conquest of your own self, worship the Divine, whose form is Peace Absolute.
